

From Finished Work to Full Walk

- Part 3: Confidence Boldness

Born From Belonging

by John Himmelberger

Intro

Confidence doesn't come from hype, it comes from knowing where you stand and whose you are. In this third part of the series, we dive into the boldness that rises from belonging. You're not an outsider trying to earn your place. You've been given access, authority, and a Kingdom assignment. Confidence is the overflow of clarity, identity, and divine partnership. It's time to stop apologizing for your voice and start walking in what's already been secured. This is sonship on display.

My Intention and Assumptions

I hope that your relationship with God, Jesus, and the Holy Spirit is strengthened through this teaching. My assumption is that you have read or are reading all 66 books of the Bible for context. This is meant to be 'salt' and make you thirsty. You're welcome.

From Finished Work to Full Walk: Living as Sons in the Father's House

Confidence — Boldness Born From Belonging

Intro:

Confidence isn't hype—it's inheritance. This isn't about swagger, personality, or self-help. True Kingdom confidence is rooted in who you belong to and where you're seated. It's not thinking highly of yourself—it's thinking rightly because you know who your Father is.

Confidence doesn't start in your emotions—it starts in your access. The veil was torn. The blood was applied. You walk into the throne room not as a guest, but as family. And that changes everything.

1. Confidence in Access — The Way is Open

Scripture: Hebrews 10:19–22 (AMP)

“Since we have confidence and full freedom to enter the Holy Place...”

You don't beg to enter—you belong there. Confidence comes when you stop approaching God like a stranger and start engaging Him like a son. The cross didn't just deal with sin—it opened a door, forever.

Truth Bomb:

You don't have to knock. You're already inside. Confidence is your covenant posture.

2. Confidence in Identity — Overcomers By Design

Scripture: 1 John 5:4

You're not trying to win the battle—you're living from victory. Overcoming isn't something you earn—it's something you inherit. You've already been positioned in Christ.

Gold Nugget:

You're not fighting for a place—you're fighting from it.

Confidence grows when you realize that your name is written in victory ink. Your assignment may stretch you, but your identity secures you.

3. Confidence in Purpose — You Were Made For This

Scripture: Ephesians 2:10 (AMP)

“For we are His workmanship... created in Christ Jesus for good works...”

God doesn't create placeholders. You are not filler in the Kingdom. You were designed with intention. Confidence shows up when you understand that your life has divine weight—on purpose, with purpose, for purpose.

Truth to Declare:

- I don't stumble into calling—I walk in what was prepared.
- I don't measure myself by comparison—I measure by design.
- I was made for this.

Kingdom Key:

Purpose fuels perseverance. When you know why you're here, you don't run from hard—you rise in it.

4. Confidence in Clarity — The Spirit Still Speaks

Scripture: John 16:13 (AMP)

“When the Spirit of Truth comes, He will guide you into all truth...”

You're not left to guess. The Holy Spirit isn't vague—He's specific. He still speaks. Clarity is the byproduct of relationship, not religious performance. When you walk with the Spirit, you don't fear missteps—you trust the journey.

Gold Nugget:

The Holy Spirit is your clarity—not just for spiritual stuff, but for real life.

This is the era of believers who know what the Father is saying, see where He's moving, and go with confidence.

5. Confidence in Authority — Not Just Access, But Assignment

Scripture: Luke 10:19

“Behold, I have given you authority... over all the power of the enemy...”

Confidence isn't just about being with God—it's about moving with Him. Sons and daughters carry delegated authority. When you speak truth, Heaven backs you. When you stand in prayer, things shift. You're not operating on wishful thinking—you're operating on royal decree.

Truth Bomb:

You carry the King's authority because you carry His Spirit.

Closing Activation: Where Do You Need to Rise?

Confidence isn't arrogance—it's alignment. Where have you been hesitant where Heaven has said go? What doors are open that you've delayed walking through? What lies are muting your roar?

This is the season to:

- Pray bold prayers.
 - Lead like you're sent.
 - Speak like Heaven is listening.
 - Move like the battle is already won.

Prayer Declaration:

Father, I thank You that I belong to You. I refuse to walk in shame, fear, or hesitation. I embrace confidence—not from my own strength, but from Your truth. I was born for this. I have access. I carry purpose. I move with clarity. And I speak with authority. Let boldness rise—not from pride, but from sonship. In Jesus' name, amen.
