

Walking in Kingdom Trust: Living From Surrendered Confidence Part 2

by John Himmelberger

Intro

Walking in Kingdom Trust invites believers into a deeper, settled confidence in God that is not dependent on outcomes, timelines, or explanations. This teaching explores trust as a formed posture rooted in relationship, history, and identity rather than control or reassurance. As trust matures, striving gives way to peace, responsibility becomes partnership, and stability replaces anxiety. Participants are guided to release pressure, embrace surrendered confidence, and live unafraid in uncertainty, carrying a quiet authority that flows from knowing God is faithful in every season life.

My Intention and Assumptions

I hope that your relationship with God, Jesus, and the Holy Spirit is strengthened through this teaching. My assumption is that you have read or are reading all 66 books of the Bible for context. This is meant to be 'salt' and make you thirsty. You're welcome.

Walking in Kingdom Trust (Part 2):

Living From Surrendered Confidence

Focus

Trust matures when we stop asking God to prove Himself and start allowing Him to shape us.

Walking in Kingdom Trust at a deeper level means moving beyond trusting God to do something and learning to trust God as He is. This is where trust becomes internalized. It is no longer a response to crisis, but a settled orientation of the heart.

Deeper trust is not louder faith.
It is quieter confidence.

At this level, trust is no longer fueled by reassurance.
It is sustained by history with God.

When trust deepens, striving diminishes.
When striving diminishes, clarity increases.
When clarity increases, peace becomes durable.

Kingdom trust at this depth produces steadiness, discernment, and resilience. You are no longer reacting to uncertainty. You are living from alignment.

Teaching Flow

1. Trust Deepens When God Is No Longer On Trial

“If God is for us, who can be against us?”

Romans 8:31 AMP

Shallow trust asks God to explain Himself.

Deep trust has already settled the verdict.

At a deeper level, trust is no longer conditional.

We stop evaluating God based on circumstances and start interpreting circumstances through who God has proven Himself to be.

When God is no longer on trial in your heart, peace becomes durable instead of fragile.

Like a long-standing friendship that no longer needs constant reassurance, deep trust rests in shared history rather than ongoing validation.

2. Trust Shifts From Outcome-Based Faith to Identity-Based Living

“You are My witnesses.”

Isaiah 43:10 AMP

At this depth, trust is no longer about what happens next.

It is about who you are while waiting.

Kingdom trust matures when identity becomes stronger than desire.
You no longer need outcomes to validate obedience.
You trust because trust is who you have become.

When identity is anchored, outcomes lose their power to define you.

Like a seasoned sailor who doesn't panic at changing weather, deep trust knows the vessel is sound even when conditions shift.

3. Trust Allows God to Interrupt Your Timelines

“My thoughts are not your thoughts.”

Isaiah 55:8 AMP

Deeper trust relinquishes timelines.
It acknowledges that delay is not denial, and silence is not absence.

God often uses timing to refine trust more than circumstances ever could.
Waiting exposes whether we trust His wisdom or just His provision.

When trust deepens, patience stops feeling like punishment and starts becoming partnership.

Like a seed underground, trust grows in unseen places long before fruit appears.

4. Trust Transforms How You Carry Responsibility

“The steps of a good man are ordered by the Lord.”

Psalms 37:23 AMP

Deeper trust does not remove responsibility.
It removes pressure.

You still act.
You still steward.
But you no longer carry responsibility with fear.

Responsibility becomes cooperation instead of burden.

When trust deepens, obedience feels lighter because it is no longer powered by anxiety.

Illustration:

Like two people carrying a load together, trust shifts the weight from your shoulders to shared movement with God.

---

5. Trust Produces Authority Without Force

“When a man’s ways please the Lord, He makes even his enemies to be at peace with him.”
Proverbs 16:7 AMP

Deep trust produces quiet authority.
There is no need to convince, defend, or force outcomes.

Peace becomes persuasive.
Stability becomes influential.

People sense when trust is real because it creates space instead of pressure.

Your presence becomes evidence of God’s faithfulness.

Like a deep-rooted tree that remains standing through storms, trust produces stability that others lean on.
